Internship – Legal & Corporate Affairs Department

The Australian Rugby Union, the national body of Rugby in Australia and home to the Qantas Wallabies, is seeking applications from law students interested in an honorary (i.e. unpaid) internship within one of Australia’s premier sporting organisations.

Working in the Legal and Corporate Affairs Department, in the lead up to the Rugby World Cup and during the Castrol Edge Tri Nations, the intern will gain invaluable experience assisting with various aspects of intellectual property protection, sponsorship & licensing arrangements and legal research.

The honorary internship is suitable for masters or later year law students, law graduates or 1 to 2 year lawyers with the time to commit to the program and an interest in Sports Law.

Reporting to the Legal Counsel and based at Australian Rugby Union Head Offices, St Leonards, New South Wales the internship will be offered on a one-day per week basis for a period of 12 weeks.

The successful candidate will be subject to checks under the NSW Working with Children Program.

To apply please send your CV and covering letter supporting your application to recruitment@rugby.com.au.

Applications close COB (5pm EST) on Friday 1 July 2011.
The Internship will commence the week of 11 July 2011.

To discuss the role in more detail please contact Julie James – Manager, Human Resources Australian Rugby Tel: 02 8005 5528 / Tom Matson, Legal Counsel Tel: 02 8005 5517.